APPOINTMENT OF AN ELECTION COMMISSIONER.

1. Rule 173 of the Representative Assembly Rules and Rule 194 of the Legislative Council Rules prescribe the outer time limit for the filing of election petitions. The names of candidates who were returned unopposed to the Legislative Council and the Representative Assembly were published in the Gazette on 20th February 1941, and the names of candidates who were successful at the regular elections is due to be published on the 21st February 1941. Within thirty-five days from these two dates.Viz., 20th ~~February~~ March and 28th March, the candidates who stood for election are required to lodge a return of their election expenses with the Returning Officers, who are required by Rule 169 to publish a notification in the Gazette to the effect that the returns have been lodged in their offices and that such returns are open to inspection. Election petitions are required to be lodged within fourteen days from the date of the publication of such notification.

2 Assuming that the Returning Officers will publish the required notification within a week of the lodging of such returns, viz., 3rd April, the outer limit for the filing of election petitions will be 17th April.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

2

3 No inner limit is prescribed by the Rules for the filing of petitions. They may be filed soon after the names of the successful candidates are published in the Gazette.

4 Unless the Government dismiss a petition as not in accordance with the Rules, they are required by Rule 178 to appoint as Commissioner for the trial of the petition a person who is or has been, or is eligible to be appointed, a District Judge. The scheme of the Rules is that each petition may be referred by Government to an Election Commissioner, or all the petitions received by them may be referred to a single Commissioner appointed for the purpose.

5 As a fairly large number of petitions may be expected to be filed in view of the rejection of notices of Candidature, it is for orders: -

(1) Whether a single election Commissioner may be appointed, and

(2) Whether the Chief Justice may be consulted in advance to suggest the name of a suitable Officer, qualified under the Rules, for appointment as Commissioner so that he may take up his duties as soon as petitions are received.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith a Final Note by the First Member of Council on the Subject of the appointment of an Election Commissioner for the trial of election petitions for His Highness' gracious approval.

Mirza M. Ismail

Bangalore,
2nd April 1941.

Dewan.

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject.—

Appointment of an Election Commissioner.

Election petitions numbering 12 in all have so far been received by the Government under the provisions of Rules 172 and 152 of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council Rules respectively calling in question the validity of the elections of the returned candidates in certain constituencies for the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council. Some more petitions may be expected to be filed within the time limit prescribed under the rules governing the filing of such petitions. The Government are required under the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council Rules to appoint, as Commissioner for the trial of the petitions, a judicial officer of the rank and status of a District Judge. The orders of the Election Commissioner are appealable to the High Court on points of law. With a view to securing expeditious disposal of the petitions, it is proposed to appoint a single Election Commissioner and refer to him all election petitions that may be received by the Government.

The Chief Justice who was requested to suggest the name of a suitable officer qualified under the rules to be appointed as Commissioner has proposed that Mr.C. Narayanaswami Naidu may be appointed as such.

I am of opinion that the proposal of the Chief Justice that Mr.C. Narayanaswami Naidu may be appointed as Election Commissioner is suitable, and the Dewan and the Second Member are also agreeable to it. It is proposed to appoint him with effect from the 18th April, 1941, so that he may enter upon his duties without any loss of time.

I solicit His Highness's gracious sanction for the appo-
